

I'D LOVE A COOLER COUNTRY 2019

I grieve a blighted country

A land of franking credits

Of toxic sexist comments

Of greedy lying twits

I grieve their cyber-fake and fears

I grieve the lost good name

The wasted young, the working poor

The howls of: shame shame shame

I'd love a cooler country

A land of visionary bent,

Where multi-coloured leaders bold

The rainbow serpent heed,

And all of these both young and old

No shifty sellout plan,

But proud proclaim our Dreamtime theme:

We're all visitors to this land.
